

I oppose the Broadcast Flag Mandate on the grounds that it would severely restrict authors of Open Source software in their ability to publish media processing software tools, and that it would restrict consumers' fair-use rights to time and space shift their viewing of legally acquired media.